Project: The project comprises the replacement of a 10.3 km section of the Omdel - Wlotzkasbaken water pipeline, which is part of the 82.1 km Omdel - Wlotzkasbaken - Swakopmund pipeline. The pipeline supplies ground-water extracted from the Omdel aquifer to Swakopmund. As the groundwater supplied from Omdel is not sufficient to supply Swakopmund, NamWater receives additional treated seawater from Orano Mining Namibia at Wlotzkasbaken, which is extracted by the Orano Desalination Plant. The Orano Desalination Plant was commissioned in 2010 and supplies up to 26 million m<sup>3</sup> of treated water per year (approx. 70,000 m<sup>3</sup>/d).
